

Transnation No Longer Delivers Wire Instructions By Email

We have collaborated with ClosingLock for securing and distributing incoming and outgoing wire information. Due to this change, you will now receive an email from ClosingLock to the email we have on file. With a few easy steps, you will enter the portal to obtain our wire instructions securely for the closing.

Do not act upon any other email requests for wiring funds, regardless of its source.

This document portal can also deliver other documents securely upon your request.

Email preview:

"Transnation Title Agency is using a secure portal for your upcoming real estate transaction to securely share information with you. The secure portal is provided by ClosingLock. To access the portal, simply use the login link in this email. You may be required to enter a passcode that will be texted/called to the phone number in your file.

Wire transfer instructions have been uploaded to the portal. If you receive other wire instructions, contact Transnation Title Agency immediately via phone and do not trust phone numbers in emails.

DO NOT TRUST ANY OTHER WIRE INSTRUCTIONS.

Industry Leading Security

ClosingLock maintains the highest level of security with 256-bit AES encryption and two-factor authentication.

Easy To Use

ClosingLock is the easiest to use in the industry with no registration required, apps to download, or passwords to remember.

Works How You Work Today

ClosingLock integrates with title production software and over 11,000 financial institutions to ensure a seamless user experience.

100% Committed To Serving You

ClosingLock does not solicit your clients with additional offerings which could cause confusion or damage your relationship.

Transnation™
Title Agency